WITH AWARD WINNING AUTHOR

John Weiss

Classic Club is excited to bring you the continuation of our very popular Route 66 tour! We'd like to invite you to travel another portion of "The Mother Road" with John Weiss, an award winning Route 66 author as our guide. Our journey will begin in Dwight with a bountiful breakfast at Old Route 66 Family Restaurant. As we mostly travel along Route 66, we will see sites such as Dist. 6 Illinois Police office, Towanda's "Dead Man's Curve" and a walk down Lexington's Memory Lane for a great photo opportunity. Our journey will take us to newly rehabilitated Sprague's Super Service gas station in Normal. In Bloomington, we will visit the Beer Nuts Factory & Company Store and the Abraham Lincoln-themed Route 66 Visitors Center and gift shop that celebrates Bloomington-Normal's rich historical connection to the famous road and US President. Our final visits will be in Atlanta IL, home of the giant Paul Bunyan statue and an early dinner at the 1930's-inspired diner The Palm's Grill Café. The "Blue Plate Special" and homemade pie will fill us up for our travel home. Remember to bring a camera and extra cash in case you want to pick up a few souvenirs along the way. Our guide, John Weiss will also have his books available and ready for autographs at a special purchase price. Contact your local Central Bank location and place your reservation with deposits soon so you can experience our unique and fantastic journey along Route 66, The Mother Road with your Classic Club friends.

Tour Includes: Deluxe Motor Coach transportation, Tour Guide John Weiss, breakfast & dinner, admission to planned visits, snack, taxes & gratuities, driver's tip & your Classic Club escorts.
